

The Topeka State Journal.

10 CENTS A WEEK.

NIGHT EDITION. TOPEKA, KANSAS, TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 20, 1894.

TWENTY-SECOND YEAR.

ANSWERED THEM NOT

Five Thousand Hungry and Ragged Men

Crowd Into the State House at Boston Today

ASKING AID OR WORK.

The Governor Addresses the Sea of People,

But Makes No Satisfactory Answer to Their Requests.

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—The unemployed trode in the city culminated in a demonstration on the commons this afternoon which, for a time, threatened to end in a riot.

Five thousand men, hungry, ragged and ugly, crowded into the state house and adjoining grounds and vociferously demanded immediate aid in their distress.

The governor addressed the mob from the steps of the state house, and was quietly received and even applauded, although he made no satisfactory answers to their requests.

An attempt was then made by the leaders of the demonstration to get a petition before the legislature which was then in session.

But the rules precluded this and then things began to look serious. The ro-loda was packed with a crowd of men who were waiting to be the result of their leaders efforts to present their grievances to the assembled senators and when Mr. Holt, an avowed anarchist, and the spokesman, appeared on the platform and told them that the legislature had refused to accept their petitions, they broke into yell's of derision and hisses of contempt.

Swarms leaped over the balcony railing, and hurried forth into an impassioned protest against the legislators who, he said, were nothing more than corporations to whom the voices of the starving men had been silent.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 20.—A special to the Star from Sterling, Kans., says: Another snow storm and blizzard set in this morning and snow is falling fast, which is fair to rival the storm of the 11th.

SNOW SIX FEET DEEP.

Big Snow in Progress in Colorado Behind Pending Traffic.

FRUITLAND, Colo., Feb. 20.—A terrible snow storm in the vicinity of Kokomo has been in progress for two days. The snow is six feet deep on the level.

The passenger train leaving Denver Sunday morning turned back from Kokomo. No train out of here today. A rotary snow plow with numerous engines left Kokomo this afternoon for Leadville, but up to a late hour had not arrived.

A Blizzard in Iowa.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Feb. 20.—A blinding blizzard has prevailed here since early this morning. There is high wind and the storm is growing in violence with no prospect of a let-up. The weather is severely cold.

The Snow in Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 20.—The snowfall was general over the northwest yesterday. In the mountains the snow is very deep, though the railroads have not been seriously delayed. Here the snow-fall is four inches. The snow has ceased and the weather is growing colder.

Blizzard at Sterling.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 20.—A special to
the Star from Sterling, Kans., says: An-
other snow storm and blizzard set in this
morning and snow is falling fast, which
is fair to rival the storm of the 11th.

HUNTING A "MILL" SITE.

Cochett and Jackson Offers Other From Real Estate Owners.

TAUCOMA, Wash., Feb. 20.—The mining men on the West Coast lumber threatens to go out of the business. In the last issue he inserted an item stating that two prominent men, Corlett and Jackson, were looking for a mill site on Puget Sound. Letters of inquiry are now pouring in asking for particulars. Real estate men having first class "mill sites" with plenty of timber adjacent to secure the addresses of Messrs. Corlett and Jackson.

They are put in correspondence with the miners. A sample inquiry comes from a Seattle real estate agent and reads: "I saw a statement in your valuable magazine that there were two generations of miners who wished to be entitled to recognition as bellies ents." After the rest of the questions had been disposed of Mr. Gladstone added long and most enthusiastic cheers, mated the discharge of orders in employer's liability bill. The speech of Mr. Gladstone in making it clear, only lasted fifteen minutes. The speaker said in the course of his remarks that he was convinced that a large majority of the working classes were open to the policy of lords amendment and therefore the government had no option but to withdraw the bill.

I know of several locations, some of which I think would certainly suit them.
Will you please send me their names and post office numbers on the enclosed post card, so that I may correspond with them.

Jackson Thinks He Will Win.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Feb. 20.—Peter Jackson, who is playing at the Toledo theatre here, is modest in his statements regarding the expected outcome of his fight with Corlett. He simply said he was very anxious for his own win.

"Favoritism" however, believes the fight is as good as won by his man.
The standard that he used to have offered $40,000 to any one who could get him an island in Lake Superior, but yet interviewed the Pearson, and he looks at the whole thing as a joke.

A REAL FUNNY STORY.

The "Black Crook" Regarded as Too Worldly for the Bankers.

The seventh annual session of the State Teachers Association will convene in Topeka on Saturday morning afternoons in January last.

When the bankers were here last year they enjoyed themselves, and the local bankers will try hard to entertain them in a manner that will not be disappointing.

Tomorrow afternoon's session will not be devoted to the discussion of financial topics, but after the delegates have registered and a short prayer has been offered by Rev. S. H. Atkinson, Major J. E.
Hudson will deliver an address on the part of the bankers of Topeka.

Major Hudson is not a banker, but he is a good citizen. Major (Terri) H. Terri-son will then welcome the visitors on the part of the city, which will be responded to by the president of the association, Mr. Levy of Wichita.

The programme for tomorrow evening will include the naming of the regular officers and the reading of the president's address.

Thursday morning will be devoted to the reading of reports and the election of officers, and in the afternoon a fine programme of financial papers will be presented by different members of the association.

The entertainment committee of the local bankers have not yet decided just how they will entertain their visitors Thursday evening. Mr. F. G. Neal, who is a member of the committee, favored an evening of the drama at the performances of "Black Crook," rather than a banquet and Neal's wife, Mrs. F. G. Neal, was invited to help in this plan and she telegraphed to President Levy at Wichita to get the opinion and the Wichita banker sent back an telegram saying he was "against" the idea.

The third member of the entertainment committee, however, Dr. M. J. K. McNamee, had no objection to the plan and he telegraphed to President Levy at Wichita to get his opinion and the Wichita banker sent back an telegram
saying he was "for" the idea.

It was George R. Peck who offered a special car on the Santa Fe to take Mr.
MacNamee to the Pacific coast.

TREADWELL BREAKS JAIL.

The Emporia Buzzard News Through Five Bars.

EMPIORIA, Kan., Feb. 20.—A. R. Treadwell, the man who attempted to rob the Emporia post office last June and who was tried in our district court, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary and afterwards by order of our supreme court, returned to the jail at this place until the appeal for a new trial could be heard. Treadwell last night by sawing through five iron bars.

Cashier Henderson of the First National said, "Everybody is going to the jail but the Baptists."

Mr. P. L. Bonchuk said and said we have referred the matter to a committee of two, Noel and McNamee.

Mr. McNamee did not think it was a bit funny, although everybody else did in all seriousness said, "We are not going to the show but don't say any thing about it."

By order of committee.

GLADSTONE SPEAKS.

Notable Gathering in the House of Commons

In Anticipation of a Great Speech.

TALKS 15 MINUTES.

Says Working People Oppose House of Lords Amendment.

Therefore the Government Withdraws Liabilities Bill.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—There was a notable gathering in the house of commons today, in anticipation of hearing a great speech from Mr. Gladstone, who according to report, was to make an attack upon the house of lords in connection with the recent so-called obstruction of legislation, as evidenced by the amendments made by the peers to such popular measures as the parish councils bill and the employers' liability bill, not to mention the re-election by the house of lords of the house bill.

The house was crowded, and it was noticed that many peers were present in the galleries.

Mr. Gladstone, carefully dressed and with a dower in his button hole, entered during the "question" portion of the preliminary proceedings and was loudly cheered not only by his admirers, but by many of the opponents of the grand old man.

Mr. Gladstone was not long in the house before he arose in answer to a question put by Sir Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, one of the members for Sheffield, and said that there was no evidence that the Brazilian insurgents had constituted a government of such a character as to entitle them to recognition as belligerents.

After the rest of the questions had been disposed of, Mr. Gladstone added
the discharge of orders in employer's
liability bill. The speech of Mr. Glad-
stone in making it clear, only lasted
fifteen minutes. The speaker said in the course of his remarks that he was
convinced that a large majority of the
working classes were open to the
policy of lords amendment and therefore the government had no option but
to withdraw the bill.

I know of several locations, some of
which I think would certainly suit them.
Will you please send me their names and
post office numbers on the enclosed post
card, so that I may correspond with
them.

Jackson Thinks He Will Win.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Feb. 20.—Peter Jack-
son, who is playing at the Toledo theatre
here, is modest in his statements
regarding the expected outcome of his
fight with Corlett. He simply said he was very anxious for his own win.

"Favoritism" however, believes
the fight is as good as won by his man.
The standard that he used to have offered $40,000 to any one who could get him
an island in Lake Superior, but yet interviewed the Pearson, and he looks at the
whole thing as a joke.

A REAL FUNNY STORY.

*The "Black Crook" Regarded as Too
Worldly for the Bankers.*

The seventh annual session of the State Teachers Association will convene
in Topeka on Saturday morning afternoons
in January last.

When the bankers were here last year
they enjoyed themselves, and the local
bankers will try hard to entertain them
in a manner that will not be disappointing.

Tomorrow afternoon's session will not be
devoted to the discussion of financial
topics, but after the delegates have registered and a short prayer has been offered
by Rev. S. H. Atkinson, Major J. E.
Hudson will deliver an address on the part of the bankers of Topeka.

Major Hudson is not a banker, but he is a good citizen. Major (Terri) H. Terri-
son will then welcome the visitors on the part of the city, which will be responded
to by the president of the association,
Mr. Levy of Wichita.

The programme for tomorrow evening
will include the naming of the regular
officers and the reading of the president's address.

Thursday morning will be devoted to
the reading of reports and the election
of officers, and in the afternoon a fine
programme of financial papers will be presented by different members of the association.

The entertainment committee of the
local bankers have not yet decided just
how they will entertain their visitors
Thursday evening. Mr. F. G. Neal, who is a member of the committee, favored an
evening of the drama at the performances
of "Black Crook," rather than a banquet
and Neal's wife, Mrs. F. G. Neal, was invited to help in this plan and
she telegraphed to President Levy at Wichita to get the opinion and the Wichita banker sent back an telegram
saying he was "against" the idea.

The third member of the entertainment committee, however, Dr. M. J. K. McNamee, had no objection to the plan and
he telegraphed to President Levy at Wichita to get his opinion and the Wichita banker sent back an telegram
saying he was "for" the idea.

It was George R. Peck who offered a special car on the Santa Fe to take Mr.
MacNamee to the Pacific coast.

TREADWELL BREAKS JAIL.

*The Emporia Buzzard News Through Five
Bars.*

EMPIORIA, Kan., Feb. 20.—A. R. Tread-
well, the man who attempted to rob the Emporia post office last June and who
was tried in our district court, convicted
and sentenced to the penitentiary and afterwards by order of our supreme court, returned to the jail at this place
until the appeal for a new trial could be heard. Treadwell last night by sawing
through five iron bars.

Cashier Henderson of the First National said, "Everybody is going to the jail but the Baptists."

Mr. P. L. Bonchuk said and said
we have referred the matter to a committee of two, Noel and McNamee.

Mr. McNamee did not think it was a bit
funny, although everybody else did in
all seriousness said, "We are not
going to the show but don't say any thing about it."

By order of committee.

IT'S A TAKING FAD.

Topeka Ladies Learning How to Cook as Fine Art.

Library hall was well filled this afternoon with ladies interested in the cooking art, and the free lecture given by Miss Lucy Caroline Andrews inspired such enthusiasm that ere long the cooking club will be made to take the place of the card club.

Miss Andrews is a lady of attractive appearance, and has rather a petite figure. She appeared on the stage in a neat black gown with a big white apron, sleeve protectors and a dainty little cap of white swiss. Two small tables before her held necessary culinary articles and on the right of the stage stood a gasoline stove.

Miss Andrews announced that the subject of her lecture was "Boiling and Larding," "French Potatoes," and "Royal Diplomatic Pudding." After a few preliminary remarks she proceeded to prepare the pudding and placed it to cool; she then dressed a chicken, explaining the operation meanwhile.

After the preparation was completed she served the dish.

The potatoes were cut in circular pieces and boiled.

After all these things had been prepared and cooked the girls were allowed to taste them. Misses Margaret Doddy and Marguerite Bradley assisted Miss Andrews on the stage, and in serving the audience she was assisted by Mrs.
W. A. Norton, Mrs. Geo. W. Crane, Mrs. W. M. Green and Mrs. Frank Thomson.

Miss Andrews, the cooking artist, was born in Hawaii and has been for six years a teacher in Wellesley college.

Mr. Gladstone, carefully dressed and
with a dower in his button hole, entered
during the "question" portion of the
preliminary proceedings and was loudly
cheered not only by his admirers, but by
many of the opponents of the grand old man.

Mr. Gladstone was not long in the house before he arose in answer to a question put by Sir Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett,
one of the members for Sheffield, and said
that there was no evidence that the
Brazilian insurgents had constituted
a government of such a character as to
entitle them to recognition as belligerents.

After the rest of the questions had
been disposed of, Mr. Gladstone added
the discharge of orders in employer's
liability bill. The speech of Mr. Glad-
stone in making it clear, only lasted
fifteen minutes. The speaker said in the course of his remarks that he was
convinced that a large majority of the
working classes were open to the
policy of lords amendment and therefore the government had no option but
to withdraw the bill.

I know of several locations, some of which I think would certainly suit them.<br